SUBJECT: GREEK NATIONAL KILLED IN PORT HARCOURT

1. (SBU) Francis Lauze, Security Manager for Nigerian firm Globestar Engineering and Construction Company, (an affiliate of French firm Stolt Offshore Services), confirmed the killing of a Greek national, Anastassiou Stilianos, in Port Harcourt on January 1, 2005. Daniel Oliseh, President and CEO of oil service company Danglobe Consortium Limited - a Nigerian oil service firm with offices in Dallas, Tampa, and Atlanta - noted that the death appears to have been the result of a hit-and-run incident, and not related to operations of any energy firm. He denied reports that Stilianos was their employee, but said Stilianos was in negotiations with the firm for workshop space.
